

Wildfire Prevention Tips for Bikers

- Make sure your ohv has a spark arrester installed and operational.
- Do not park your ohv's on dry grass. Exhaust pipes are sometimes glowing hot.
- Make sure all camp or warming fires are dead out. Many wildfires start by not putting fires dead out.
- Always crush smokes dead out.
- Above all, think of yourself as an ambassador for trail riding. Your actions speak for all.

Wildfire Prevention Tips for Bikers

- Make sure your ohv has a spark arrester installed and operational.
- Do not park your ohv's on dry grass. Exhaust pipes are sometimes glowing hot.
- Make sure all camp or warming fires are dead out. Many wildfires start by not putting fires dead out.
- Always crush smokes dead out.
- Above all, think of yourself as an ambassador for trail riding. Your actions speak for all.

Wildfire Prevention Tips for Bikers

- Make sure your ohv has a spark arrester installed and operational.
- Do not park your ohv's on dry grass. Exhaust pipes are sometimes glowing hot.
- Make sure all camp or warming fires are dead out. Many wildfires start by not putting fires dead out.
- Always crush smokes dead out.
- Above all, think of yourself as an ambassador for trail riding. Your actions speak for all.